

RING OUT MERRILY

WEDDING BELLS ARE NOW HEARD, TELLING THEIR GLAD TIDINGS.

My Little Cupid is Ever Busy, But Seems More so at This Season Than Ever—Miss Mollie Ross and Mr. Harry Hammond are United in Marriage—Ceremony is Beautifully Impressive, as Performed in the Handsomely Decorated Home Amid Many Friends and Relatives—Young Gentlemen Entertain.

Last Thursday evening at the hour of eight there occurred one of the prettiest and most impressive wedding ceremonies which has been solemnized in this city during the early winter months.
The wedding occurred at the home of Mr.
George W. Ross, No. 804 North Topeka avenue, whose daughter, Miss Mollie E.
Ross, was the bride and Mr. Harry G.
Hammond of Canton, Ohio, was the groom.

Promptly with the hour mentioned the first bars of the wedding march from Mendelssohn floated out from the violin of Professor Blume, and after a few strains the wedding procession began to descend the stairs. Together first came Mr. George Ross, Jr., brother of the bride, and Mr. Vinton Hammond, brother of the groom. Little Miss Charlotte Torg, niece of the bride, as flower girl, followed, bearing in her hand a small basket filled with white chrysanthemums and ferns, and whose dress needed a small silver tray bearing the wedding ring. Her little white slipper kept even pace with the cadence of the music.
As she the others followed in order came Miss Grace McAdams, the maid of honor, and lastly the bride and groom.
Slowly they descended the stairs, while every guest awaited their coming with anxiety. Reaching the foot of the stairs they turned into the parlor, where the bride and groom were waiting. A magnificent floral horseshoe, composed of white chrysanthemums and smilax, lay on the floor. The bride and groom stood before it, and the bride, in a white gown, and the groom, in a black suit, stood before it. The bride and groom were waiting. A magnificent floral horseshoe, composed
of white chrysanthemums and smilax,
black suit, stood before it.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom, with a few moments before were two, but now were one, were the recipients of showers of congratulations.

The wedding indeed was beautiful given as it was among the old friends and schoolmates of the bride, and every detail was carried out with the utmost sincerity. All about the house was hung artistically Alabama smilax. The stair rail was almost completely hidden by it, the hallway was a mass of delicate and other foliage. The parlor was beautifully decorated with smilax and white chrysanthemums, the decorations in the sitting room were yellow, chrysanthemums and smilax, while the dining room was beautiful in pink chrysanthemums and smilax.

The dining table was very tastefully decorated with white ferns and white chrysanthemums. Two green ribbons of fern leaves extended the full length of the table and in the center rested a pyramid of fern chrysanthemums and smilax. In the sitting room large plants filled every corner and to one side sat a table amid the green foliage bearing a large punch bowl surrounded by the accompaniment of glass and silver.

In the parlor where the wedding itself occurred was the large floral horseshoe before which the bride and groom stood on a large white rug. The horseshoe was composed of white chrysanthemums and smilax. Red chrysanthemums represented the nails in the shoe, and smilax the toe and heel. It was inclined forward and against the wall the center rested a large mirror upon whose face rested a white floral shield bearing the intertwined initials of the bride and groom. R. and H. The entire room was a bank of palms, ferns and rubber plants, and before this the bride and groom stood under the soft light, made a truly impressive picture.

The bride was lovely in her plain but elegant gown of white duchess satin with its rich pearl trimmings. It was high about the throat, and her sleeves extended far enough to just reach the long white mousquetaire gloves. Over all fell the long black veil, held together upon the crown of her head by a large diamond star. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Grace McAdams wore white or-gandie over pale blue satin and carried a bouquet of cream chrysanthemums.
The presents were numerous and of great value. The bride was presented with a pair of beautiful diamond ear rings belonging to the bride's present from the groom.
She also received an elegant piano from her father.

The bride and groom left the house in a shower of rice from the hands of their loving friends, and left the city on the 10:45 Santa Fe train for Chicago where they will remain for a week, after which they will visit Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and finally Canton, Ohio, where they will make their future home.

The following is a list of the guests present:

Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Mr. George Ross, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor,

LITTON-CACHARD.
At 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, at the home of the bride's mother, on North Waco avenue, occurred the wedding of Miss Jewel Cachard and Mr.
Frank Litton of Benton, Kansas.

The house was beautifully decorated with plants and cut flowers. In the center of the room an arch was built of smilax and chrysanthemums, under which the ceremony was performed. As the sweet strains of the wedding march poured forth, played by Mrs. Thomas Voss, the bride party marched into the parlor, where the guests then awaited them. The bride was attired in white silk with pearl trimmings, gloves to match the costume, and she carried white roses and wore some of the flowers in her hair. Miss Fannie Rutledge, maid of honor, was dressed in white or-gandie made over a delicate shade of pink silk. She also carried white roses.
Miss Jewel Cachard is well-known in Wichita and has many warm friends here.

Mr. Frank Litton is the son of W. H.
Litton, a prominent cattleman of Benton, Kansas.

Following the ceremony, the guests repaired to the dining room where an elaborate wedding supper was served. Many beautiful presents were received from here and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Litton will be at home to their friends at 430 North Waco.

Among those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Lew Wirthlin of Cincinnati, Ohio; Thomas Voss, Henry Schmitz, Sanford, O.; Kane, E. K. Robinson, G. Knapp, L. M. Freed, W. H. Perin wick, J. C. Cachard of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Joe Wirthlin of Cincinnati, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN ENTERTAIN.
Friday evening some of the young gentlemen of the city entertained a number of their friends at the residence of Mr.
Thompson, corner of Twelfth street and Lawrence avenue. The gentlemen were Messrs. Earl Evans, Horace Edwards and Walter Vincent. The house was prettily decorated by a great variety of chrysanthemums, palms, ferns, rubber plants and other foliage. The bay window in the parlor was especially pretty. The greater part of the evening was devoted to progressive loggometry. Miss Sadie Warren of St. Louis, securing the prize. Some fine music was also rendered; a vocal solo by Miss Ensworth, piano solo, Miss Mamie Thompson, and vocal solos by Misses Jocelyn and Larimer.

Flaming, Edmondson, Knight and Boyle.

MUSICAL CLUB ENTERTAIN.
The Wichita Musical Club gave their second recital of the season in the rooms of Mrs. David Hays in the Sedgwick block Friday afternoon and was very highly appreciated by those present. Mrs.
C. H. Brooks' history of Mozart and her sketch of his wonderful opera "The Magic Flute" was very fine and instructive, and was well presented. The second number, "Overture to the Magic Flute," by Mesdames Hays, Higginson and Misses Frooman and Carpenter was beautifully rendered and well received. The vocal solos by Mesdames Higginson and Child were beautiful and highly appreciated. Below is the program:

Sketch—"Magic Flute".....Mozart
Mozart.....Overture to the Magic Flute Mesdames Hays and Higginson Misses Frooman and Carpenter.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Miss Clara Knecht entertained a number of her friends and schoolmates last Monday evening in honor of her 14th birthday. She received a number of beautiful presents. A dainty luncheon was served and all returned home at a late hour wishing her many more happy birthdays. Those present were Mesdames Jennie Hodges, Pearl Levert, Pearl Bliss, Edna Loggwood, Frances Anderson, Anna Cass, Lena Ray, Daisy Clark, Carrie Loggwood, Bertha Knecht, Emma and Clara Knight, and Mesdames James Christopher, Joseph Perrell, Harry Viney, Carl McGee, John Bennett, Charles McKee, Elmer, McDonald, Paul Kiker, John Mc-Donald.

OTHER SOCIAL EVENTS.
Perhaps it was the contrast of the coldness of the interior with the storm outside, but the meeting of the Convalescent with Mrs. A. T. Carpenter on Wednesday was an exceptionally charming one. It may have been that the bride was so lovely, but the usually entertaining, or Miss Pearce's piano selection was particularly brilliant, or the lunch ser-ed was exceedingly palatable at any rate the afternoon passed quite as pleasantly as one could wish. The next evening will be with Miss Mabel Larimer, Miss Pearce leader. Subject "Posters."

Mrs. John W. Adams gave a pink dinner and bridal party Tuesday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Mollie Ross.
The tables were handsomely decorated with pink ribbon, and pink and white chrysanthemums. The entire menu, which was very elaborate, was also carried out in pink. The guests were Miss Mollie Ross, Miss Grace McAdams, Mr. Harry G. Hammond and Mr. Vinton Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor gave a family dinner on Saturday evening in honor of Canton friends. Those present were Mr. D. Hammond, Mr. Harry Hammond, Miss Jane Hammond, Mrs. L.
Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. W. N. Fogg and children, Miss Mollie Ross and George W. Ross.

Mrs. Reuben Israel entertained a very pleasant little evening party last Saturday in honor of Mrs. Shipley of Springfield, Mo. Music, refreshments and a jolly good time rendered were the features of the evening.

Mr. Fred W. Bentley, Miss Mabel Lar-mer, Mrs. Keck, Miss Dunbar, Mr. Harry McClung, Mr. H. Berry and Mr. Westgate will sing at the Ensemble Club entertainment, Wednesday, Dec. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Churchward entertained F. C. Wood and family, W. P.
Stout and family, Foster Brook, Mrs.
Richardson and Miss Richardson Thanksgiving day.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.
To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and sold by all druggists.

WAS A HAPPY EVENT.
Family Reunion That Came in Right for Thanksgiving.

On Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. W.
H. Pierce of 1925 North Topeka avenue were the victims of a little surprise that lightened the burdens of their declining years. The guests, who reside here, Will and Ira, and their daughter, Mrs. Foster Toler, called at the house of the "old folks" to spend the day.

"Mother," said one of the boys, "there are two tramps at the back door wanting something to eat."

"Well," said Mrs. Pierce, "this is Thanksgiving day and it would never do to turn anybody away. Let them in. They proceeded at once to get them a dinner.

"It would be well for you to talk to them and see what they want," suggested the son.

Mrs. Pierce went to the back door and there, to her great astonishment, stood two fine looking gentlemen instead of tramps, and that—J. J. and J. J. Pierce of Fort Smith, and W. E. Pierce of Denver.

The old folks had not seen the boys for several years and it is unnecessary to state that their visit was as happy as Thanksgiving as there was in any family in all the city of Wichita. It was a general family reunion, all the children of the old folks being present.

RETURN MANY THANKS.
Directors of the Wichita Hospital Express Their Gratitude.

The children of the public schools of the city will be glad to hear of the result of some of their generosity, which was displayed upon Thanksgiving day, and where some of it went. The following communication was received from the president and in behalf of the directors of the Wichita hospital:

The board of directors of Wichita hospital wish to gratefully thank the kind-hearted and generous school children for the Thanksgiving donations, which were as follows:

Sweet and Irish potatoes, 29 bushels; beans 1 bushel; onions 2 bushels; cabbages 11-2 dozen pumpkins; oat meal, 32 packages; also 10 pounds in bulk; corn meal, 100 pounds; flour, 160 pounds; graham flour, 50 pounds; rice, 8 pounds; corn, 70 cans; 5 cups of jelly, and 50 pounds of dried fruit, with a few pounds of sugar, coffee and some miscellaneous articles, vegetables and fruit.

From these donations was distributed a portion to the Rescue Home and to several very poor and needy families.

The board also reported that they thank Mr. Dewey for a nice turkey, the High School for $1.65 and the Wichita Wholesale Grocery for 500 bags, Lehman & Higginson, 500 bags; Ford & Ford, 500 bags; Mr. Fuller, 500 bags; and Geo.
400 bags, and Stanton grocery, 35 bags.

Could the children and those teachers who so kindly assisted in this good work, but see the great good that has resulted accomplished, and given by such donations, they would feel that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Again, accept the heart-felt thanks from all who helped in this good work.
He who sees in secret, reward you openly. Respectfully,

MRS. M. M. WOODCOCK,
President.

WANT TO BE SEPARATED
Mrs. Withmore Seeks a Divorce From Her Second Husband.

Yesterday Mrs. Tillie Withmore applied for a divorce from her husband D.
S. Withmore, in the district court. She alleges that they were married in 1892, and that he immediately proceeded to persuade her in the most vicious manner to do him half of her property. She positively refused on the ground that the property belonged to a former husband and that she did not propose to deprive two minor children of the benefits of that property. He renewed his requests several times and she renewed her refusal. At times he became so enraged that he awakened her in the middle of the night to curse her. He also whipped the children simply for the purpose of annoying her. Finally he left her altogether.

CONSIDERABLE OF A PILE IS UN-LOADED FROM A CIRCUS OAR.

Advancing Advertising Car Alone Carries Several Tons of This Advertising Matter—This Item is by no Means a Small Thing in the Finances of a Show—Mc-Mahon's Circus Cars Being Made Ready to Stop Away for the Winter—Tramps Destroy Considerable, if Not Properly Cared for—Actors to Remain Here.

McMahon's circus which pulled into the city a few days ago, has almost completed their preparation for the winter in the city. The animals were taken from the train as soon as the show struck the city, and the unloading has continued ever since. When they strike a town to give an exhibition it takes but a very short time to unload all their paraphernalia, but in preparing for the winter months it is entirely different. The force of men is cut down to a minimum and a great many of them did not come clear to this city, preferring to remain in the south during the cold months.

Yesterday one of the advance advertising cars was unloaded of the show bills which were left over from the season's billings. About fifteen tons were removed from the car. This estimate was made by one of the showmen who had calculated upon the amount. The car has immense lockers underneath and these were filled almost to the brim. Quite a force of men were kept busy all day hauling it away to be stored for the winter and there was wagon load after wagon load of it. All this was loose, but within the car were boxes (innumerable) containing bills which had not been opened at all.
Within the car a large boiler stands which is used to make the great quantities of paste required to post up the bills.
The posters which are left are for the greater part the fine colored plates which usually form the border of the large display bills of a coarse nature. These plates are very thin, the coloring being as near as can be gotten to the color of the original animals themselves. The cost of this kind of printing is not small by any means and forms one of the chief expenses of a company. But they do not spare any pains or money to make it as fine as possible, as this is their chief mode of advertising to the uneducated classes who do not read the newspapers, and this is their only manner of reaching them. The finer the pictures and the more brilliant the coloring the more pleasing it is to the eye and also the more expensive it is. Many have not noticed these fine pictures in the billings of shows herebefore. The theatrical companies do not display this class of bills and consequently there are fewer manufactured.

Mr. Costello, the advance agent of the show, was seen yesterday by an Eagle reporter, and he told several thrilling stories of his experience in the circus business, in breaking horses and training them for exhibition purposes. He stated that at one time he was showing in an eastern theater and although his horses did all he told them to, none of them would allow themselves to be put into the single stalls which had been prepared for them in the winter. The circus business is like everything else, in that it is a profession unlike all the rest with its own peculiarities.

The majority of the actors will remain here during the winter months, having distributed themselves around among the hotels. They are all seemingly glad that the season is over with and are enjoying fully the luxury of a "dollar a day vacation."

The horses are to be sent out to different places in the country to remain during the winter. They are all the better for the season. The circus work quite plainly in a manner which is familiar to all who have handled horses to any extent. All the animals and people connected with the show have become somewhat settled—save of course the horses who are to go into the country—and they will all be out of practice soon, and will be glad to remain so, until the early spring month when rain roll around bidding them prepare for the road again.

RELIEF FOR MODEST WOMEN.

Many modest women dread a private examination by a physician. Indeed that is very humiliating to any self-respecting lady.
It shocks modesty, often disarms virtue, and is liable to cause trouble between husband and wife. Thousands of women suffer year after year because they regard it as unlady-like to say anything about their "female trouble." They won't submit to "private examinations" and "local treatment."

One lady writes: "I had no menses for eleven months before I took Wine of Cardui, but I would not go to a doctor about it."

"To think of talking to a strange doctor about this trouble almost gave me a nervous chill, and I just put it off from day to day," says another.

A third writes: "If I had not heard of Wine of Cardui I think I would have died, for I could not bring myself to the point of going to a physician about my womb trouble."

Wine of Cardui

which is attracting so much attention now, will cure every kind of "female trouble."

This treatment requires no examinations by physicians. No sacrifice of modesty or self-respect is necessary in adopting it. It can be purchased at any drug store and used without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself. Wine of Cardui is entirely harmless. It only costs $1.00 per bottle. It is the simplest, most effective home treatment of all menstrual disorders known to medical science. If you have been delaying treatment for any cause, get a bottle of Wine of Cardui to-day.

Mrs. Minnie Little, of Belton, Mo., writes: "For years I suffered terrible pains every month, and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I could not submit to that, and was so despondent that I had given up all hopes of a cure."
"My husband insisted on my trying the Wine of Cardui, and at last, thank God, I tried it. Last month I did not have a pain and did all of my work, which I have not done before in over seven years."
